Home of the Tigers!

A Note from Ms. Pierce

Happy Holidays from A to Z!

Aware of my body I breathe in, calming my body I breathe out

Be present

Connection cultivates cooperation, trust and love

Discipline yourself first, child second

Empathize

Focus your attention on the things you value

Give what you want to receive more of

HALT Hungry? Angry? Lonely? Tired? Meet child's basic needs.

I love you...

Just lean in and listen

Kid around, have fun and play

Listen to understand

Make time for one-on-one time

Notice positive attributes

Oops...say oops, we all make mistakes

Practice what you preach

Question or a Statement? Which is needed to communicate clearly

Respond from principles rather than react from emotions

See things from your child's point of view

Take time for wonderful you!

Upset is an inside job, push pause and breathe through it

Validate your feelings and your child's

When you clean up, then you can go to your friend's house

X-tra time to make transitions. Five-minute warnings are quite helpful

You are enough!

Zealously love self and others.

“At every moment, we have a choice between approaching the world with a spirit of love and learning or one of fear and punishing. That choice is yours.
