Home of the Tigers!

A Note from Ms. Pierce

Nothing holds more power than love, yet love has been neglected as an element of discipline, and many hurtful things have been done in its name. Conscious Discipline will take you on a journey from fear to love. Dr. Becky Bailey defines love as an action that has the following four results:

1. Love increases security and provides safety.

You might bark at your child, "Get over here or you'll get lost!" But wouldn't it feel better to say something like, "Stay close to me in the store, so I can keep you safe." Fear separates, love unites.

2. Love travels from the worthy to the worthy.

When we feel good about ourselves, we tend to focus on the beauty in our lives and the goodness of others. When we feel bad about ourselves, we tend to criticize and judge others. Fear judges, love enjoys.

3. Love looks for the highest and best in people and situations.

Imagine you are out to lunch and the waitress messes up your order. Instead of thinking, "She is totally clueless. She should lose her job." Try thinking, "We all have off days. I will help her by giving her smiles and kind words." Fear focuses on what is missing; love sees the best of what is.

4. Love accepts what is.

Instead of shouting, "Is this what you call a clean room?" Calmly say, "Put the dirty clothes in the hamper and straighten out the comforter on your bed." Fear looks for blame, love seeks solutions.

We have had a wonderful first quarter of school. Seeing students back in the classroom learning, either traditionally or virtually, has been incredible. I hope all our families enjoy fall break - be kind, be safe, wear your mask, and stay healthy.

As always, we wish you well!

Love,

Ms. Pierce

Hey Greenville Families!

Did you know we are still collecting Box Tops for our school this year? 😊. We are quickly approaching our first deadline (November 2nd) to submit Box Tops for Greenville, and we need your help to earn money for our school. You can still send in actual clipped Box Tops to the school that are not expired, or you can also download the app on your phone to scan your receipts to receive credit for Box Tops on items you purchase. The app will also tell you what items you can purchase that include Box Tops and will even show you how to include the receipts from online grocery shopping as well. If you have any questions about how to scan your receipts, please feel free to refer to the link for help.
